Kapitel 14: Spending Christmas together (Request)

TOP:

Because TOP was really close to his family, he invited you to celebrate Christmas together with his parents and sister. Of course you said yes and even prepared a little present for his family. When you arrived at his parents house, together with him, he introduced you to his family and they welcomed you. At first you ate together and his sister and mother asked you many questions. Later on you started to open the presents you had for each other. While you got a brand item from TOP, which you told him a long time ago that you wanted it so much, you got a picture frame from his family. At first you didn't really get what it was for but his mother immediately came to you with a Polaroid camera and you all took a family picture together which you put into the frame. TOP and you spent the whole night at his parents home and you all got along very well. Seemed like they already accepted you in their family even before they got to know you in person. Thanks TOP for talking so nice about you to his parents the whole time.

G-Dragon:

You two celebrated at his home and it was perfect. He cooked for you and even had picked you up before. "Ji Yong. Are you sure you need no help." " Everything's finished already." He told you and came to you with the plates. You two ate together the delicious food he made for you. In the middle of eating he gave you your present and insisted to open it right away. You did as he told you, opened it and saw a brand new mobile phone. "Ji Yong. I told you I don't need this expensive things." "It's for us two. I also have one. It's a couple phone." You sighted and were a little disappointed because your present was so little compared to his. He took the present you gave to him, which was an album with all your memories inside. "Ahhh. It's so nice. Thank you so much." He really seemed to like it. "I know you hate it but I have another present for you." He told you. "Ji Yong!!!!" You yelled his name a little bit angry. He gave you a jewel box and you hoped that it wasn't something too expensive. When you opened it you could see a key and a piece of paper. "That...." You started. "It's the key for the entrance and the code for my home." You smiled at him happily. "Like that you can come here more often and sleep over." You should take the opportunity and sleep over tonight ;)

Daesung:

Because all of them are not really good at cooking you cooked for Daesung, Taeyang and Seungri in the dorm on Christmas. You celebrated Christmas together with them and exchanged presents. You were a little disappointed because you thought you could spend the day together with just Daesung. But it was better than not seeing him at all. When you opened his present there was a little stuffed animal inside. "Because we can't see each other often you should have someone who you can cuddle anytime you feel lonely. Also I won't get jealous." He giggled. You smiled at him and thanked him for his present. Taeyang and Seungri left the room because they wanted to give you some time to be alone. When you were about to do the dishes, Daesung came from behind and gave you a back hug. You enjoyed it and continued to make the dishes until you saw that Daesung was holding something in front of your eyes. "Two tickets to Jeju for 3 Days. Merry Christmas." Use your time together there ^^

Taeyang:

Sadly the two of you couldn't spend Christmas together because he had a concert with Big Bang. At least it was in town so you could go to the concert with the tickets Taeyang got for you after asking YG many many times. You were standing in the first row dressed were pretty, even you weren't sure if Taeyang would find or see you. The concert started and you watched the performance of Big Bang. It took some time but finally Taeyang saw you. He made some special moves for you and even sang a song for you without letting his fans noticing it. Luckily you were allowed to go backstage where you met Taeyang and exchanged presents. You two just had a short time together and when you were about to leave you met YG in person. He greeted you and gave you a little present. You thanked him and looked surprised at the little envelope in your hand. Inside you found an address of a hotel close to the dome and a room number. Later on, after thinking carefully about if you should go there or not, you went to the hotel. Taeyang was waiting for you there happily. Luckily it wasn't YG
Oo

Seungri:

You were together in the dorm with Seungri. Taeyang and Daesung. Taeyang and Daesung asked the two of you if you wanted to celebrate together with them but before you could say anything Seungri took you with him in his room. "Aiiish. I was asking the Hyungs if they could visit their family's. Why didn't they do so?" "What's so bad about them being here?" You asked him, but he didn't give you an answer. "Well. I will just change the plan a little bit." You watched him as he stood up and turned off the light. Were this his plans? "Seungri....I don't want to." You told him, knowing about his perv plans. "You don't want to?" "NO!!" You heard a little *click* and the room was lightened up by a little candle on a cake. "You don't wanna have the cake? But you always love sweets." "Oh." You can just say surprised. "A cake." "Yes, a Christmas cake. To celebrate a little Christmas party on our own. What were you thinking?" "Nothing. We can do that later." :P
