

Requiem aeternam - Leaves within the current of destiny

A poem for every moment

Von NathalieWojta

Kapitel 3: A Whisper in the Mist

We have to die in despair,
Since a peaceful death leaves no regrets.

We have to die in despair,
To ensure we would never fall into the darkness embrace.

We have to pass three trials,
Way, Name and Reason mark the solid stepping stones within the path.

We have to pass three trials,
Because only accepting the inadmissible truth will unlock the door.

We have to bear a burden,
Otherwise the world will crumble into nothingness.

We have to bear a burden,
To wander among the living once again.
