Prolog: Until the world is over

~~~In this big city I am all alone
Like an empty can, thrown away
Until we know each other thoroughly
If it's love, then let's sleep in eternity...

Until the world is over, we won't be apart
So I asked in a thousand nights
Why does only a time that won't return is shining
Even a worn out heart will break...
Hopeless thoughts... In this Tragedy Night

Then people demand an answer
And lose something that's irreplaceable
A city filled with desires, even night skies stardust don't shine on us

Before the world is over, please listen to me
A Catastrophe the looks like a full-blown flower
While everyone wishes, no one believes in eternity
Even though they certainly dream about tomorrow
Hopeless days and... This Tragedy Night

Until the world is over, we won't be apart
So I asked in a thousand nights
Why does only a time that won't return is shining
Even a worn out heart will break...
Hopeless thoughts... In this Tragedy Night

This Tragedy Night~~~~
